After seven weeks of slug-fests, it all comes down to the last semifinal: Chicago vs. San Francisco. The match that may decide who goes to the finals is a rousing battle between two heavyweights — Mike Gans and Junior Hosea. We don't know who's in the finals, but we know one boxer who'll be at ringside: Sugar Ray Leonard! The WBC welterweight champ will act as guest commentator. April 2,5,9,11

World Television
Premiere! JOHN D. MacDONALD's

CONDOMINIUM

Part 1

Another HBO First! A stunning film from John D. MacDonald's powerful bestseller. Reveals romantic involvements, greed, intrigue and corruption beneath the carefree lifestyle of an expensive Florida community. Barbara Eden, Dan Haggerty and Steve Forrest head the big cast. Ralph Bellamy, Arte Johnson and Dorothy Malone guest star. (1:39)
April 6,11,15,20,24,29

Part 2

The shocking tale of this Sun Belt community is too big for a single film. Part 2 continues the panoramic view of the men and women who dreamed of a perfect place in the sun. They find, however, their paradise might not withstand the nightmare of a destructive hurricane. Everyone's life is affected as the saga reaches its high-velocity climax. Candid The Candid Camera

Here's the second of the peeping Allen Funt shows with no holds barred. A very special birthday present—a "gift girl;" chastity belts—what they are and where to buy one; "love notes" over lunch at a truck stop; and a new pill for women "when a headache is not a headache." Be ready for a lot more surprises that will make you laugh—and be very thankful it didn't happen to you. Nudity. April 11,16,19,21,27

TIME WAS... The Seventies

Buckstone County Prison

Set in the hills of North Carolina, this chain gang drama combines two-fisted realism with suspense. Earl Owensby stars. Profanity, violence. (R-1:27) April 4,7,16,20

The final segment of HBO's exclusive series delving into the decades past. This one zeroes in on a nation disillusioned, divided and in shock. Watergate. The resignation of a president. Vietnam, Patty Hearst, the rise of cults. Positive action toward peace in the Middle East. And lighter moments like the Bicentennial celebration, the discos, jogging, and the digital boom. The CBs. Science-fiction flicks. Videotape. And it all happened... in the Seventies. April 14,18,22,27,30

Legends: Humphrey Bogart

American screen hero, hell-raiser and dramatic actor. Humphrey Bogart—the man behind the image! HBO's special Legends series traces the life of this gifted individual with on- and off-screen footage including newsreel shots, family photos and scenes from his prolific and versatile motion picture career. April 17,21,25,29

The Evictors

People live and love and die in this small Louisiana town and no one ever locks their doors—except in the old Monroe house. A chilling horror-suspense film. Jessica Harper, Michael Parks and Vic Morrow anxiously await the unknown. "Triple-surprise ending" (Variety) Bloody violence. (PG-1:28) April 16,24,26,28

Greatest Sports Rivalries

Lakers vs. Celtics

Sports fans remember the '60s. Six times the Boston Celtics faced the L.A. Lakers for the NBA championship. It seemed the outcome always rested on a Bill Russell rebound, a miraculous pass from Bob Cousy or a basket by Jerry West. HBO Sports revisits this intense rivalry with rare footage plus interviews with past stars as they describe those pressure-cooker games. There'll also be a special look at Russell's legendary defensive wizardry. April 23/26, 27

Ellen Burstyn Same Time, Next Year Alan Alda

She's a young housewife from California, he's an accountant from New Jersey. They meet accidentally in a romantic little inn, become lovers and return annually for 26 years—all the while happily married to other people. Ellen Burstyn and Alan Alda star in this comedy with great insight into the joys, problems and changes of a long, loving relationship, married or not. Adult humor and relationships. (PG-1:59) April 27

An Evening with Lou Rawls

Four-time Grammy-award winner, Lou Rawls shares his Las Vegas nightclub performance with HBO audiences. A broad variety of musical styles—from contemporary to jazz and pop—showcase his versatile talents as an entertainer. There's a tribute to the Big Bands, Dixieland, and the era of the song stylists Nat King Cole, Billie Holiday, Louis Armstrong, Sinatra, and Peggy Lee—and nostalgic photos and film clips. A rich musical evening. April 26, 30

Escape to Athena

Roger Moore
Telly Savalas
David Niven

Allied POWs, shot-down USO entertainers and Greek partisans form an odd alliance on a Nazi-held island during WW II. Roger Moore is the German commandant; Telly Savalas, a partisan leader; David Niven, archeologist; and Claudia Cardinale, a madam. "Spectacular special effects" (Hollywood Reporter) Wartype violence; profanity. (PG-1:42) April 25, 27, 30

Days of Thrills and Laughter

Laurel and Hardy, Charlie Chaplin, the Keystone Cops—they're all here in this cinema comedy classic featuring rare shorts and serials from the silent film era. April 1, 7, 10

Coupling: Sexual Lifestyles in the '80s

What are people trying to do in order to make relationships work? Sexual swinging. Commercial sex clubs. Open marriage. Traditional marriage. Computer-dating. These are among the things people do to stay together, to not be alone, to find fulfillment. A fascinating look at our changing values and morality. No judgments are made. Adult situations, nudity, strong language. April 30

Part I. Gymnastics is filled with leaps, spins, cartwheels and one risky move after another. Many of the best gymnasts from both sides of the Iron Curtain will do that and more: the men in pommel horse and rings; the women on the uneven bars and in vaulting. April 21, 23, 25

Part II. Gyorgy Gueczochy and Hiroto Kurihara have hard-to-say names and hard-to-beat routines. Gueczochy is the European parallel bars champ, Kurihara the ace of Japan's men's team. The women will compete on the balance beam. April 29

Gymnastics: The Albuquerque Journal Invitational

Barry Staver/SI

California Suite

Jane Fonda and Alan Alda are part of the perfect cast in this perfect comedy of life in Beverly Hills. Mildly raucy situations, language. (PG-1:44) April 9, 14, 20, 25
